SHREY CORP.

HR POLICY MANUAL

Human Resources Policies, Procedures and Workplace Expectations

Document owner	Human Resources
Version
Status

This manual organizes the HR policy information supplied for Shrey Corp. It is a draft and should be reviewed by the company before being issued to employees.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

The manual is organized into the following policy areas.

1. Introduction
2. Code of Conduct
3. Employment Policies
4. Working Hours and Attendance
5. Leave Policy
6. Payroll and Compensation
7. Performance Management
8. Employee Benefits
9. Travel and Expense Policy
10. Workplace Conduct and Anti-Harassment
11. IT and Data Security
12. Remote Work Policy
13. Grievance Redressal
14. Exit Policy
15. Employee Acknowledgement

Important drafting note: Where the source document did not provide a verified company contact, this version uses a confirmation note rather than inventing an email address or phone number. Policy details from the source have been retained unless clarity or formatting required a wording change.

1. INTRODUCTION

Welcome to Shrey Corp. This Human Resources (HR) Policy Manual summarizes the company's stated workplace policies, procedures and expectations. Its purpose is to support a professional, respectful and productive working environment and to give employees a common reference for key HR matters.

Employees are expected to read this manual and seek clarification from the HR department when a policy is unclear. This draft should be reviewed and formally approved by Shrey Corp. before it is adopted as an official policy.

2. CODE OF CONDUCT

All employees are expected to act responsibly and professionally while representing Shrey Corp.

- Act with integrity, professionalism and respect toward colleagues, customers, partners and other workplace contacts.
- Protect confidential company and business information. Do not disclose confidential information to unauthorized external parties.
- Avoid actual or potential conflicts of interest. Disclose any conflict that arises to the appropriate manager or HR representative.

3. EMPLOYMENT POLICIES

3.1 Equal Opportunity

Shrey Corp. aims to provide equal employment opportunity and prohibits discrimination based on race, gender, religion, caste, age, disability or any other category protected by applicable law.

3.2 Probation Period

New employees are subject to a probationary period of 3 to 6 months, depending on the role. The applicable period should be communicated to the employee as part of the employment terms.

3.3 Background Verification

Employment offers are contingent upon successful background verification, as applicable to the role and hiring process.

4. WORKING HOURS AND ATTENDANCE

The standard working schedule stated in the source policy is:

Monday to Friday, 2:00 PM to 11:00 PM.

- A flexible schedule may be permitted with the manager's approval.
- Employees should inform their manager in advance about expected late arrivals, early departures or absences.

The company should confirm whether breaks, public holidays, overtime, shift arrangements and time-recording procedures are covered by separate policies.

5. LEAVE POLICY

The annual leave allowances stated in the source policy are listed below. Employees should follow the company's leave-request and approval process.

Leave category	Allowance stated in source
Casual Leave (CL)	8 days per year
Sick Leave (SL)	8 days per year
Earned Leave (EL)	15 days per year
Maternity Leave	26 weeks
Paternity Leave	10 days
Unpaid Leave	Subject to manager approval

Leave entitlements and eligibility can depend on applicable law, employee category and employment terms. Shrey Corp. should verify the leave provisions before publishing this manual.

6. PAYROLL AND COMPENSATION

- Salaries are stated to be credited by the 9th working day of each month.
- Payslips are made available through the HR portal.
- Applicable deductions may include income tax, Provident Fund (PF), Employees' State Insurance (ESI) and other deductions required or permitted under applicable rules.

Employees should contact HR or Payroll if they have questions about a payslip or salary deduction.

7. PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT

- Performance appraisals are conducted annually, with results typically announced in June.
- Reviews may consider goal achievement, teamwork, leadership and innovation.
- Underperformance may be addressed through a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP).

The manager or HR should communicate applicable review timelines, expectations and follow-up steps to employees.

8. EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

The source policy lists the following benefits or programs:

- Health insurance: Group health insurance for employees and dependents.
- Wellness programs: Mental health counselling and gym-membership reimbursement.
- Learning and development: Budget support for courses, certifications and conferences.
- Referral bonus: A bonus for referring candidates who are successfully hired, subject to the applicable program terms.

Eligibility, limits, coverage, reimbursement requirements and program terms should be confirmed with HR or the relevant benefits administrator.

9. TRAVEL AND EXPENSE POLICY

- All business travel must be approved in advance.
- Reimbursement claims must be submitted within 15 days and supported by receipts.
- Permitted travel classes and hotel standards vary according to employee grade.

Employees should obtain approval and follow any applicable expense-submission instructions before making business travel arrangements.

10. WORKPLACE CONDUCT AND ANTI-HARASSMENT

- Shrey Corp. states that it has zero tolerance for harassment or bullying.
- Employees should report suspected harassment, bullying or other misconduct to HR promptly.
- Complaints will be handled confidentially and impartially, to the extent practicable and consistent with a fair review and applicable requirements.

The company should ensure that reporting channels, investigation steps, protection against retaliation and any legally required committee or procedure are clearly documented before this policy is issued.

11. IT AND DATA SECURITY

- Use company-provided systems for official work.
- Do not share account credentials or install unauthorized software.
- Report suspected data breaches or suspicious activity to the IT team immediately.

Employees should follow any additional security instructions issued by the company's IT or information-security function.

12. REMOTE WORK POLICY

- Remote work may be permitted depending on the employee's role and the required approval.
- The source policy states that employees can work from home for 2 days per week.
- Daily stand-up meetings and weekly check-ins are mandatory.
- A secure internet connection and VPN usage are required.

Employees should confirm their approved remote-work days and any role-specific requirements with their manager.

13. GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL

- Employees may raise a grievance with the HR department by email or in person.
- The source policy sets a target response time of 48 business hours and a target resolution time of 7 working days.

These timelines should be treated as the stated internal targets; some matters may require additional time depending on complexity. HR should communicate any material delay to the employee.

14. EXIT POLICY

- The source policy specifies a minimum notice period of 36 days for resignation. Employees should confirm the applicable notice period in their employment agreement and with HR.
- The source policy states that full and final settlement will be processed within 53 days of the last working day.
- Exit interviews are mandatory.

The source document included a contact email and telephone number that appear to be example details. They have not been carried forward as verified company contacts. See Appendix A to complete the approved contact information.

15. EMPLOYEE ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

All employees must acknowledge that they have received, read and understood the HR Policy Manual and agree to comply with the policies applicable to them.

Employee name
Employee ID
Department
Employee signature
Date

This acknowledgement confirms receipt and understanding of the manual. Questions about interpretation should be directed to the HR department.